1 At the very end of the evidentiary hearing on February 14, 2013, the Trustee for the first 2 time claimed that he lacked trial balances and loan ledgers. He went on to testify that the lack of 3 these documents caused him significant additional fees and costs.

4 As evidenced in the newly-filed Declaration of Scott Urquhart and detailed in Moss
5 Adams' Motion to Reconsider, such testimony was incorrect. The Trustee had Meridian's 6 financial records. Meridian itself generated numerous trial balances and loan ledgers.

7 In addition, Moss Adams downloaded to two discs its PFX system for Meridian and its 8 Meridian related server files. These two discs were then delivered to K&L Gates. Moss Adams 9 believes that both discs contain numerous trial balances and loan ledgers, contrary to the 10 Trustee's testimony.

11 The originals of these discs should be delivered to a third party independent vendor. The 12 vendor should then download and print out all information on both discs. The printouts for these 13 discs will show that as early as August 2010, the Trustee had loan ledgers and trial balances for 14 virtually every year that Moss Adams audited any Meridian Fund. Moss Adams agrees to pay 15 the vendor's cost for doing this.

16 DATED this 19th day of April, 2013.
